

Down it goes

Photos by Bob Barnett

The old curling rink was demolished Monday by Canmore Contracting. Demolition started at 9 a.m. and the building was down by 2 p.m. Materials were carted off to the dump. The building sat on park land owned by the town. At present there are no plans to develop the land.

